Read "The Turtle and the Rabbit," a fable by Aesop.

One day, a turtle and a rabbit decided to race each other. The rabbit was sure he would win. After all, he was much faster than the turtle.

When the race started, the rabbit began to sprint as fast as he could. Soon, he was way ahead of the turtle.

"I may as well take a nap," the rabbit thought. "That slow turtle will never catch up with me!"

While the rabbit slept, the turtle kept going and going. He never stopped, even when he got tired. The turtle reached the finish line while the rabbit was still asleep. The slow turtle won the race!

What did the turtle do when the rabbit took a nap?

- A. He kept going and didn't stop.
- B. He stopped to wait for the rabbit.

Determine the topic and purpose of informational passage.

Venus flytraps are strange plants. They eat insects! But they don't have teeth, and they can't chase the insects. So how do Venus flytraps catch and eat their food?

Venus flytraps have special leaves that open and close like jaws. When an insect crawls on the leaves, it touches the little hairs on them. Snap! The leaves close fast. The insect is trapped inside.

The leaf trap fills up with a kind of juice. It turns the insect into a healthy soup that the plant soaks up. When the plant is ready for another meal, it opens its leaves again.

What is the passage about?

A. flies

B. Venus flytraps

The Dance Contest

It was Eva's first time at the Seven Seas Dance Contest. The room was crowded. Eva kept her eight arms to herself so she didn't bump into anyone.

The first dancer swam onto the shell stage.

"That's Nico," a turtle said to Eva. "We always let him win."

"Why? Is everyone afraid of him?" asked Eva.

"Yes!" said the turtle. "Who knows what would happen if he lost!"

Eva wanted to win. But Nico did look scary.

Look at the picture. Why is everyone afraid of Nico?

- A. He is a shark.
- B. He has scary costumes.
- C. He has a really big tail.

Read the passage about Theodor Geisel, an author who was also known as Dr. Seuss.

Theodor Geisel wrote many books for kids. But most people know him by the name Dr. Seuss.

As Dr. Seuss, he wrote books that were easy to read. His silly stories made his books fun to read, too.

When Theodor was a child, his mother sang to him before bed. He loved the words and the beat of the songs. Later, many of his books sounded like the beat of songs.

Theodor also used words in clever ways. Sometimes he even made up his own words!

Once, a man made a bet with Theodor. He bet that Theodor could not write a book using only fifty words. But Theodor won. The book he wrote was Green Eggs and Ham. It is one of his best-loved books.

Who was Theodor Geisel?

- A. a well-known singer
- B. a children's writer
- C. a songwriter
